

Week Commencing 4th November

The sentences below all contain a main clause and a relative clause. A relative clause comes after the noun to which they add more information. They usually start with a relative pronoun (e.g. which, who, whose, where).

The sentences below have been mixed up! Please match the main clause to the relative clause that suits it best by drawing a line to it. For example:

My favourite food is pizza,

which originates from Italy.

Main Clauses

I go swimming at 7am,

Robert is a very hardworking boy,

I can't eat the sandwich because it has peanut butter inside it,

My sister looks like my mum,

We moved house in 2014,

Jaguars live in the rainforest,

The Egyptians were great architects,

In bad weather, I have to play inside the house,

The flying boy is called Peter Pan,

Relative Clauses

whose hair curls in the same way.

which I am allergic to.

which made me feel sad to leave my home.

who always does his homework.

which prevents me from playing in my cubby house.

who built many pyramids.

where it is hot and humid.

which means I don't have breakfast until 8.30 am.

whose home is in Neverland.

Week Commencing 4th November

The sentences below all contain a main clause and a relative clause. A relative clause comes after the noun to which they add more information. They usually start with a relative pronoun (e.g. which, who, whose, where).

The sentences below have been mixed up! Please match the main clause to the relative clause that suits it best by drawing a line to it. For example:

My favourite food is pizza,

which originates from Italy.

Main Clauses

I go swimming at 7am,

Robert is a very hardworking boy,

I can't eat the sandwich because it has peanut butter inside it,

My sister looks like my mum,

We moved house in 2014,

Jaguars live in the rainforest,

The Egyptians were great architects,

In bad weather, I have to play inside the house,

The flying boy is called Peter Pan,

Relative Clauses

whose hair curls in the same way.

which I am allergic to.

which made me feel sad to leave my home.

who always does his homework.

which prevents me from playing in my cubby house.

who built many pyramids.

where it is hot and humid.

which means I don't have breakfast until 8.30 am.

whose home is in Neverland.