

Number Card Puzzles

Use these number cards to answer the questions below.

What is the largest six-digit number you can make? Write it in digits and in words.

What is the smallest five-digit number you can make? Write it in digits and in words.

Can you make a number that has a three in the ten thousands place, a seven in the thousands place and a four in the millions place? Write it in digits and in words.

Can you make a five-digit number that has a five in the ones place and a one in the hundredths place?

Fill in the spaces to make the lowest possible decimal number:

Make a number to make this number sentence correct: ____ . ____

$$75\,138 + 25\,463 < \boxed{} < 184\,651 - 58\,432$$

Make a decimal number that could go in the box:

$$84.35 > \boxed{} > 84.24$$