

Spot the difference!

At the time of the English Civil War
there lots of divisions within Christianity.

Although the two churches pictured here are both Christian, 'Church A' is a Protestant church and 'Church B' a Catholic church.
What differences can you see between the two pictures?

Make a list in your Green Book

Church A
Protestant

Church B

Catholic

With a trusted adult close by, explore the following website;

<https://www.timetoast.com/timelines/timeline-of-events-1640-1660>

Have a look at the main events from 1642-1646 (but you may also become interested in other years too)!

The execution of Charles I

This is a contemporary (made at the time) print of the execution of Charles I outside the Banqueting House in London. The gruesome print is based on the earliest European depiction of the execution.

With a trusted adult nearby, carry out an internet search for 'the execution of Charles 1'. Copy and paste the image into the middle of a presentation program like PowerPoint or Keynote and then make notes around it of what you see.

For example:

The executioner and his assistant carried out their duties with ruthless efficiency.

Many people were angry that the King was being executed.

Everywhere was packed as crowds jostled to get the best view.

Some people were overcome by emotion.